call 1-800-249-1136

or e-mail Reservations@bestwesternmilton.com

You must book before August 1, 2008, mention NBCC or GBBCC for the discount

Friday Afternoon and Evening:

- No organized events are scheduled for Friday afternoon.
- Al Munro will be driving up to Milton in the afternoon. The planned route consists of two-lane backroads, no four-lane highways, at least until we get to Milton. You are welcome to join him or discover your own way.
- REVISION: A hospitality room will be setup in the evening for the two clubs to relax and meet people. This is a BYOB for snacks, and as the room is not licensed for alcohol discretion is the word.

Saturday Morning and Afternoon Events:

- The morning tour includes driving the beautiful backroads in and around the Niagara Escapement through the Milton area. Morning events presently being reviewed include The Stonehouse of Campbellville, the opportunity to visit the Legendary Motor Car Company and the Halton County Radial Railway.
- Lunch is at the St. George Pub (at your own cost) in Georgetown. We plan to be there for noon and provide about 1-1/2 hours for lunch.
- The afternoon tour will again include the backroads between Georgetown and Milton and will conclude about 2pm at the Country Heritage Park. An American Civil War re-enactment is taking place this particular weekend, though if that is not “your-cup-of-tea” feel free to explore other sights in the area.

Saturday Evening

- A duel club banquet is being catered consisting of a Chicken Supreme Dinner Buffet (includes desserts & coffee/tea).
- The cost is $31.00 per person (includes all taxes & gratuities)
- Arrangements can be made for a vegetarian dinner, if required please contact Cathy de Ruiter.

Prepayment is required for this dinner by August 14th, Al and Jan Munro will be available to collect cheques at the June and August meetings, as well as the Shaw Festival.

For the July meeting please present your cheque to Al Evalds, the club treasurer.

Please make cheques payable to the Niagara British Car Club Inc.

Sunday

- No organized events are scheduled for Sunday.
- You may wish to group up with other club members for the drive home.
- One item that is being investigated is visiting the British Salon Car Club display which will be held on the grounds of the Halton Region Museum in the Kelso Conservation Area from 11am to 4pm... more to come.
